

Boulder International Folk Dancers

2015 Ahmet Lüleci Workshop Party

April 24-26, 2015, at the Avalon, Sodal Hall, Boulder, Colorado

$500 Grant from the Alex "Tink" Wilson Legacy Fund - April 2015

BIFD held its annual workshop Friday through Sunday, April 24–26, 2015. Thanks to a $500 grant from the Alex "Tink" Wilson Legacy Fund, the Saturday night party, held in Sodal Hall at the Avalon in Boulder, included live music by the Sherefe Quartet.

About 50 people attended the party, enjoying the lively, danceable songs, which included dances from Ahmet Lüleci's teaching repertoire. The talented, experienced musicians put their hearts into the performance, interacting with the partygoers and lending high energy to the evening. It was clear that the live music contributed to the festive atmosphere.

The BIFD Board of Directors extends its gratitude to the Legacy Fund Committee and looks forward to future events that foster a spirit of community and exploration of cultures through music and dance.

Ahmet Lüleci leads one of the Turkish dances he taught during the workshop.

A variety of music appealed to varied tastes and dances.

The Sherefe Quartet was a grand highlight of the party and a perfect accompaniment to the evening.

A Greek syrtos is a popular dance at parties.

Humor was never in short supply.

It's hard not to smile when you're dancing.